We are excited to announce the addition of Rob Biehler and Nerina Jahja to our corporate restructuring team of professionals. Rob has joined B. Riley Farber as a Managing Director and Nerina as a Senior Manager.

Rob has over 25 years' experience as a restructuring professional, most recently as partner of a national accounting firm. Rob has acted for financial institutions, secured creditors, corporations, shareholders, and other stakeholders in over 125 restructuring and advisory matters providing reliable advice in complex distressed matters. His experience includes engagements in the retail, distribution, food and beverage, agribusiness, real estate, and manufacturing industry sectors.

Nerina's previous experience comprises of insolvency and restructuring services, in a wide range of industries both in Canada and the USA. She has been engaged to assist a variety of stakeholders that include management teams, financial institutions, alternative lenders and secured creditors in numerous stressed and distressed engagements. Nerina currently serves as a board member of the International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation (IWIRC), a premier networking organization for women in the practice of insolvency and restructuring.

"We're pleased that we continue to attract top talent to our firm; and the addition of both Rob and Nerina reinforces Farber's commitment to continue to be a leader in the mid-market restructuring space," said Gary Lifman, Joint Managing Partner of Farber.

"We are excited to welcome both Rob and Nerina to our corporate restructuring practice and feel confident they will contribute to the continued success of B. Riley Farber in the restructuring marketplace," says Hylton Levy, Partner and co-leader of Farber's Corporate Restructuring practice.

Please join us in welcoming Rob and Nerina to the firm.
