Mark Yang

CFA, MSF, BMath

Manager | Corporate Finance

Mark Yang is a Manager in the Corporate Finance practice of B. Riley Farber. He focuses on advising clients on acquisitions and divestitures, transaction opinions, private debt and equity financings, business and securities valuations, and financial restructurings.

Connect with me

- myang@brileyfin.com
- 437.294.4640
- 647.916.5112
- Download VCard
- LinkedIn

Profile overview

Through the Master of Science in Finance program at Vanderbilt University, and four years of work experiences in the United States, Mark has provided a variety of corporate finance and financial advisory services including the following:

- mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures
- fairness opinions
- goodwill impairments
- business and securities valuation
- purchase price allocations

Mark has experience in many industries, including infrastructure, healthcare, mining, retail, energy, telecommunications and industrial.

Of interest...

Prior to coming to B. Riley Farber, he worked in the Financial Advisory Group for an investment bank focusing on providing transaction opinions and fair value accounting advisory services

Areas of expertise

- Acquisitions

- Business Valuations
- Debt Financing
- Divestitures
- Equity Financing
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Strategic Options Analysis
- Stressed & Distressed Transactions and Advisory

Education & qualifications

- Chartered Financial Analyst, CFA Institute (2019)
- Master of Science in Finance (MSF), Vanderbilt University (2015)
- Bachelor of Math (BMath), University of Waterloo (2013)